OF CHALLENGE CUP

An offer has been made to the Hawaii Promotion Committee and to those interested in the Pacific Challenge Cup for international yacht racing, whereby the cup, guaranteed by the committee, can be secured at manufactur-

Harry Foster, the local jeweler, is the disinterested individual who has made the offer. Mr. Foster believes that the offer of the cup would be a big advertisement for the Territory and yesterday made the following proposal te Secretary E. M. Boyd. That Mr. Fester would engage, whether the cup was designed here or on the mainland, to order the same and turn all correspondence over to the committee, having the cup delivered to the committee or a local bank, thus saving the committee advantage of all discounts and trade prices that would ordinarily accrue to

Mr. Foster states that while the design might readily be furnished locally the cup would have to be manufactured in the East where they have facilities and make a special practice of spinning the bowls and casting the figures. Five hundred dollars would secure a magnificent cup, many of the trophies presented to men-of-war being far less expensive.

FREEAR AT THE ROOF GARDEN

Freear's roof garder, grand promenade concert on Saturd v night is the social topic of the day. I are is quite a rush for tickets (which a. a limited) in anticipation of the rare treat in store for all. A glance at the advertisement is sufficient to prove this, as the merits of the artists are well known, and "Frivolity" Freear will be seen at his best in a number of new specialties. He will appear in song. dance, story and comedy and this will be his last appearance in his unique entertainment. There is certain to be a big crowd, as every one seems bent on being present. The roof garden of the Young Hotel will present a novel appearance. Freear guarantees to present one of the very best and most varied programs ever offered to the public of Honolulu.
